DEPT.: City Council

TITLE: Use of Community Center for the Mountain View Library Foundation's
Black History Festival

RECOMMENDATION

Waive City Code Section 38.13(b) to allow the Mountain View Library Foundation to conduct the Black History Festival at the Mountain View Community Center on Sunday, February 29, 2004, in honor of Black History Month.

FISCAL IMPACT

The total cost for rental of the Community Center (Auditorium, Rooms 2 and 3) will be $864, plus cleaning fees. In addition, a $300 refundable security deposit will be required by applicant.

BACKGROUND AND ANALYSIS

The applicant is Rosiland Bivings, acting on behalf of the Mountain View Library Foundation (Attachment 1). The event will consist of approximately 30 booths with vendors selling Afrocentric clothes, carvings, figurines, etc. In addition, there will be face-painting for children, music and live entertainment at no charge to the public.

Vendors will be charged $50 per booth, and proceeds will be used by the Mountain View Library Foundation for costs incurred by the event. Any remaining funds will be retained by the Mountain View Library Foundation. Moneys received from the actual merchandise sales will go directly to the vendors.

Currently, City Code Section 38.13(b) prohibits commercial activities for private profit in any City park or recreation facility.

CONDITION

Within 60 days of the conclusion of the event, the event sponsor must submit to City a post-event financial statement showing the amount of revenue collected, expenses and net profit/loss to the sponsor using the special event financial form provided by the City.
